Article 1 – Use of the Logo

1. The logo, as reported in art. 1.2. of the Statute, must be in compliance with the drawing, colours and proportions established for the official logo and approved by the International Board, at its meeting of 1st November 1996.
All non international bodies can use the logo exclusively with the additions identified by the national body, outside the double circle. The logo cannot be used for personal or commercial purposes.

Article 2 - Formation of a Club

1. For a Club to be formed it must have at least twelve persons representing different disciplines out of those reported in annex 1 to these Regulations.

2. A proposal is written down by the promoters or by another Club and submitted to the competent Area Governor in the cases stated in art.19 of the Statutes or to the District President in the other cases, supported by the candidates' curricula and by the name of the new club, containing a distinguishing geographical or territorial place-name.

3. The competent Area Governor or the District President shall verify that the conditions laid down in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article are met and, within thirty days, shall forward the application, with his reasoned opinion, to the General Secretariat, thereby granting the provisional authorisation to form the Club.

4. The representative of the Promoters or of the sponsor Club shall convene a dedicated constitutive meeting of the founding members to appoint the President and the Secretary of the new Club; he shall then send the report of the meeting and a copy of the memorandum of association to the General Secretariat.

5. After reviewing the documentation submitted, the Secretary General shall forward the file to the International President who will authorise the formation of the Club in writing by notifying the competent Area Governor and/or the District President to this effect. The General Secretariat will register the new Club in the club directory. The new Club shall adopt its own Statute within three months from the constitutive meeting.

6. The President of the new Club shall organise a solemn meeting to formalize the formation of the Club.
The Presidents of all other Clubs from the same Area and/or District shall be invited to this meeting, which will be attended by all Promoters and chaired by the Governor or the District President. In the course of the meeting, the District President or, if he is unable to attend, the competent Area Governor shall hand in to the Promoters, who thus become Founder Members, the badge, P.I. Statute and Regulations as well as any other useful documentation concerning Panathlon. The District President and/or the Area Governor shall then countersign the founding deed of the Club and hand it to the new President.

7. Clubs for the calendar year of constitution will pay to PI an admission fee that will be fixed by the International Board to destine to the fund for expansion of P.I.

8. Should a Club, for a justified reason, wish to replace or change its name, after the Governor's and/or District President's approval, the Club shall file a request to the General Secretariat, and the latter shall submit it to the international Board to be ratified;

9. The Managing Committee of Clubs whose formation took place in odd years must be renewed at the end of the term of office in order to align it with those renewed in even years.
In this case, the President can be re-elected for another two years.

Article 3 - Club Statute

1. Every Club is governed by its own Constitution, the basic principles of which must, as regards aims, regulations and the rights and duties of the members, be consistent with the Constitution of P. I. The Constitution is executed by the President's Committee

2. Club Bodies

The Club Constitution must provide for the following bodies:

- the Members' Assembly;
- the Club President;
- the Managing Committee with a minimum of three members including the President. Among the Board Members or Members must also be provided for a Board Secretary.
- The Constitution defines the procedures for summoning the Assembly and the necessary conditions for the latter to be validly held, the procedures for voting and electing the various Bodies, and procedures for changing the Constitution and dissolving the Club.

3. The Club Statute may also provide for the election of: an Arbitration Board and an Audit Board.
The colleges continue in office for the same period of the Board and are renewable.

4. The term of office for Club President is two years and can be renewed for another two years.
The possible turnover in the office during the period does not entail an extension of the end of the President's office re-election is possible only for another two years period.
In any case, re-election for subsequent two-year terms is possible, exceptionally, if approved by a qualified majority of three fourths of the votes of the members entitled to vote and present at the Club General Meeting.

5. Renewal of offices must take place by no later than the month of January and the newly elected Bodies take office from the following 1st February.

6. The adoption of the Statute and related changes are resolved upon by the Club Extraordinary Assembly, according to the procedures provided by art. 3 p.14 of these Regulations.

Article 4 - Rights and Duties of a Club

1. In compliance with the provisions of P.I. Constitution and with these Regulations, Clubs have the right to:

- a) take part in General Assemblies and in the Assemblies of their respective Districts and Areas;
- b) take part in International, District and Area Congresses at the conditions set by the organising committee;
- c) organise events, conferences, debates and any other initiative which falls within the constitutional aims.

2. In compliance with the obligations stated in art. 3.4 lett. c) of P. I. Statute, Clubs must pay the annual fee for P.I. membership, as established.

Payment shall be made for the number of registered members on 31 January of each year and shall be in two instalments of the same amount, one to be paid by 28 February and the other by 31 July of the same year.

3. The Club every time that admits a new member must pay the membership fee to Panathlon International in the following ways: 50% of the entire annual fee for members who let into the club from 1 February to 30 June and 50% of the semiannual fee for members who let into the club from 1 July to 31 December.

4. Similarly, clubs have to pay district fees in compliance with the provisions of art. 17.2 of the Statute and Area fees in compliance with art. 19.5 of the Statute.

5. The Clubs that are not in good standing with international, District or Area membership fees shall not be entitled to vote in any Assembly. Furthermore, as long their dues remain delinquent, they shall not be entitled to file any claims or appeals whatsoever. In case of persistent delinquency, they may incur the additional sanctions provided for in the Litigation Rules.

The Members of defaulting Clubs shall not be eligible to run as candidates for any Area, District or International offices.

Article 5 - Club Members

1. Club Members must possess the prerequisites laid down in article 4 of P.I. Statute, representing the sports categories provided for in annex 1 of these Regulations.

2. The list of categories mentioned above is established and updated by the International Board, which can also assent to widely followed sports being divided into subcategories.

3. Proposals for admission must be presented to the Managing Committee by at least two Members of the Club, of which at least one member must be the guarantor, and must be supported by the applicant's complete curriculum vitae.

4. The Club's Managing Committee establishes a permanent commission, formed by at least three Members, who are not members of the Managing Committee, with the task to carry out a preliminary investigation on the admission of the applicant Member to the Club. This commission shall last as long as the Managing Committee and is renewable.

5. The commission refers to the Managing Committee the results of the preliminary investigation, together with its opinion on admission; the Managing Committee decides by unanimous votes of participants.

6. In compliance with art. 4.3 of the Statute, the new Member must accept P.I. principles, aims and commitments. the new Member and is admitted to the Club with a solemn ceremony possibly, in special meetings dedicated to this activity.

Article 6 – Honorary Offices in Clubs

1. Clubs can appoint an honorary President, chosen from among the Club's Past-Presidents and Honorary members and prestigious personalities who are not Club members. Their appointment is decided by the Assembly of Club Members, upon proposal of the Managing Committee.

2. The annual P.I. membership fee for the Honorary President and Honorary Members is paid by the Club.

Article 7 - Exceptions and Incentives
